THE Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker with a family party will attend the commencement at Camp Humphreys tomorrow afternoon, when the members of the graduating class of the engineer school will receive their diplomas.

Senor Don Federico Alfonso Pezet, ambassador of Peru, will return to Washington tomorrow from Chicago, where he went to attend the convention. He will later go to San Francisco for the democratic national convention. Senor de Pezet, who thought for a time of accompanying him to the coast, has changed her plans entirely, and will sail for Europe August 10. She will accompany her brother-in-law and sister, Senor Barreto, chief justice of Peru and recently appointed Peruvian minister to Spain, and Senor de Barreto, who will visit the ambassador and Senor de Pezet en route to Spain. Mr. and Mrs. Alfonso Washington Pezet and daughter-in-law of the ambassador and Senor de Barreto, who have been their guests for some time, left for New York today, but will return to Washington later to continue their visit.

Mrs. Henry H. Rogers and her daughter, Miss Millicent Rogers, who recently left Washington and went to New York for a short visit, are now at their summer home at Southampton, L. I.

To Spend Season in Brazil.

Mme. Paulo de Godoy, daughter of the minister of Guatemala, has left Washington and will spend the summer months in Brazil, rejoining the minister here in the late autumn.

Mrs. Frank Lyon Polk, whose resignation as undersecretary of state takes effect today, will leave Washington within a day or two and join Mrs. Polk and their family at Manchester, Mass., where they are located for the summer.

Mrs. Norman H. Davis, wife of the new undersecretary of state, succeeding Mr. Polk, arrived yesterday and joined Mr. Davis at the Shoreham, where he is established.

Mrs. J. W. Little is entertaining at a bridge party this afternoon at Soldiers' Home in compliment to Mrs. Chase Kennedy, wife of Brig. Gen. Kennedy, for whom a round of beautiful parties has been given since her arrival here from Panama. Quantities of roses, larkspur and delphiniums adorn the various rooms and tea will be served later in the afternoon.

Dr. Charles E. Ralph, major United States Medical Reserve Corps, and Mrs. Ralph will entertain at supper at the Cafe St. Marks this evening in honor of their daughter, Miss Mildred Alice Ralph, whose marriage to Raymond Weisbrod of Philadelphia will take place tomorrow evening at the Mount Vernon Place M. E. Church. Guests will be limited to the members of the bridal party.

Maj. Gen. and Mrs. George W. Read, with their daughter, Miss Margaret Read, and the general's aid, Lieut. Walter Cox, U. S. A., have arrived in Washington and are at the Shoreham for a short visit.

Minister of Salvador a Host.

The minister of Salvador and Mme. de Sol entertained at a house party evening at the Shoreham in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Stewart, who have just returned from the Orient, where they have been since their marriage. Mrs. Stewart was formerly Miss Jacqueline Archibald of New York, and she frequently visited Mme. de Sol before her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, after a short stay here, will motor north, visiting New York and various coast resorts. The guests at the dinner included the minister and Mme. de Sol's household, Miss Julia Laury of Salvador and Miss Laumister of California. The party later attended the performance at the National.

Senor and Mme. de Sol, the parents of the minister, with his sister, Mrs. Harrison, are expected to arrive in Washington tomorrow, coming from Salvador by way of New Orleans. They will make a visit of several weeks at the legation.
